(a) whether the Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya follows policy of posting of spouse in the same station or nearer to each other;

(b) if so, the details of the transfer policy;

(c) the number of applications received during the last six months by the JNVs for transfer to Delhi alongwith the details of grounds for transfer;

(d) the action taken by the Government thereon so far;

(e) the number of vacant posts of TGT (Hindi) in JNVs especially in Delhi;

(f) the time by which these are likely to be filled; and

(g) the details of the facilities and leave given to freshly appointed teachers in JNVs?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. SANJAY PASWAN)

(a) & (b) Yes, Sir. Those regular NVS teacherswho seek transfers to the Vidyalaya where his/her spouse is working are given preference in request transfers. Such couples are eligible to make request for transfer irrespective of length of their stay in the present region.

(c) & (d) One application from a lady TGT (Hindi) for transfer from East Imphal to Delhi on the groundthat her father expired long back and her mother is alone at Delhi has been received in January, 2004. Since the post of TGT (Hindi)is not vacant in Delhi, the request could not be acceded.

Samiti normally consider the transfer requests during annual transfers only. Process for annual transfer during 2004-05 has recently been started and applications are yet to be received. Action will be taken on receipt of applications for transfer.

(e) There are 27 vacancies of TGT(Hindi) in Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalayas as on date. Presently there is no vacancy in any of the JNVs located in Delhi.

(f) The vacant posts are likely to be filled up by April 2004.

(g) Leave to freshly appointed teachers are given as per Government of India rules in this regard. The teachers are also entitled for rent free partially furnished housing in JNV campus, facility of admission to their ward in JNV and free boarding as per rules of the Samiti.
